

Welcome to Connect, your regular burst of knowledge, insight, updates and top tips spanning JSB's full range of expertise.

Spring is here and for many it's the end of another financial year. It's also that time when employers need to make sure they are on top of new UK employment legislation - and latest case law. In this issue of Connect we focus on why and how you should review your employment contracts; invite you to test your own knowledge in our 'just for fun' quiz; and provide you with our employment law calendar.

Time to spring clean your Employment Contracts

A regular review of employment documentation is advisable to ensure it still meets your business needs. Given that for many, we are about to start a new financial year, a good 'new year's' resolution would be to carry out a spring-clean of your employment contracts, policies and procedures. If this process flushes out some changes to be made, thought should be given as to how the changes will be implemented.
